

Business Ethics

2013/6

Studies and Essays

Table of Contents

*Which way to go?

Jacob Dahl Rendtorff: After the Financial Crisis: The Ethics and Economics Debate Revisited

Giorgio Baruchello: Cruelty and Austerity. Philip Hallie's Categories of Ethical Thought and Today's Greek Tragedy

Jacob Dahl Rendtorff: Ethical Challenges Facing Greenland in the Present Era of Globalization: Towards Global Responsibility

Bo Isenberg: Mammonist Capitalism – Ubiquity, Immanence, Acceleration. And the Social Consequences

Signe Larsen: On New Beginnings and Democratic Legitimacy

Peter Wolsing: Responsibility to Nature? Hans Jonas and Environmental Ethics

Øjvind Larsen: Philanthropy and Human Rights - The Genealogy of the Idea from Antiquity to Global Society

*The source of the studies: Nordicum - Mediterraneum

Perspectives

Carlos Flores Juberías - Marija Atanaskova: Macedonia and its Way Towards European Integration: Advances, Obstacles and Implications for the Balkan Region

Maurizio Scaini: L'Egitto degli anni Settanta: Liberalizzazione economica e radicalismo islamico

Imre Garaczi: Die Globalisierung am Horizont der Geschichtsphilosophie

Guillermo Á. Pérez Sánchez: Europa y los Balcanes, veinte años de miradas cruzadas